

STALWARTS MAKE HARMONY KEYNOTE

Express Approval at Better Recognition by County Organization.

GIVE ENDORSEMENTS

Harmony was the keynote of the meeting of the Republican Association of Lower Merion and Narberth, held last Thursday evening at the Casa Del Rey in Haverford. Particularly so was it the outstanding theme of the speeches made by the Lower Merion political leaders who called attention to the fact that this district had been given large appropriations for road work and a place on the county organization slate in the primaries this fall.

William G. Hower, Bryn Mawr publisher, will be the Lower Merion-Narberth representative on the county slate. He announced at the meeting that he had decided to become a candidate for Recorder of Deeds instead of County Treasurer, after being assured that he might expect the support of County Leader Charles Johnson for this office. Mr. Hower was endorsed for this position by the Association.

Others endorsed for the county slate were Samuel Crawford, of Norristown, and Daniel Stout, of Glenside, for Republican County Commissioners; Judge Harold K. Knight for the Common Pleas Court, and Judge J. Burnett Holland for the Orphans' Court. Three of these, Messrs. Crawford, Stout, and Holland, attended the meeting, spoke and gave thanks for their individual endorsements.

Judge Holland, who admitted to a youthful forty years of age when appointed recently to the vacancy on the Orphans' Court bench caused by the death of Judge Solly, impressed the sixty stalwarts who attended the dinner-meeting. His father, Judge William Holland, who served on the Federal Court bench, was one time Republican leader for Montgomery county, and Judge Holland promised the stalwarts that he intended to live up to the tradition for public service which he had inherited.

Promises No Annex Extras.

Commissioner Stout, after thanking the Association for the endorsement it gave him, assured the members that the county commission realized and recognized the importance of Lower Merion in things political in Montgomery county. He then told of the new annex to the county courthouse which his commission now has before it.

"We have been proceeding slowly on this project," he declared, "because we want to be sure of our ground before going ahead. When we let the contract it will be for an absolute fixed price. There will be no 'extras' to boost the cost later on." He devoted the rest of his speech to outlining in a general way the work of the County Commissioners.

Reports from organization headquarters at Norristown this week indicated that in addition to Commissioners Stout and Crawford, Judges Knight and Holland and Editor Hower for Recorder of the Deeds, the following county officers would be placed upon the Johnson county slate for re-nomination and re-election in the fall: Register of Wills, Robert C. Miller, of Norristown; District Attorney, Frank X. Renninger, of Cheltenham; County Controller, William C. Irwin, of Ambler; Clerk of Courts, Harold C. Mechtel, of Pottstown.

No Sheriff Candidate Yet.

Sheriff William H. Fox, of Skipack, who is prevented by law from succeeding himself, will in all likelihood be switched to County Treasurer, the post at present held by Frank W. Shalkop, of Trappe. This leaves only the office of Sheriff still without an officially recognized candidate.

This tentative official slate provides only for the elimination of two present county officeholders. They are B. Paul Sheeder, Recorder of Deeds and Pottstown leader who turned in for Vore at the last election, and Shalkop, the Treasurer. Sheeder is definitely out of the good graces of the organization, but Shalkop may or may not be taken care of before Leader Johnson presents his full slate to the Republican voters for endorsement.

Present indications are that the primary on September 20 will be a love feast in the county. Dr. Wilson, of Ambler still claims that he will be a candidate for Register of Wills whether or no he gets the Johnson endorsement, but this is the only present rift in the harmony emanating from the organization lute. Even if Dr. Wilson does stray off the organization reservation, it is not generally believed that he will be able to make a serious fight against the Johnson slate.

People Waded, Motors Stalled, Brooks Rose—Main Line Was All Wet

Baths were given hundreds of commuters along the Main Line last Saturday morning when the small cloud-burst which flooded Philadelphia invaded the suburbs as well. Commencing shortly after 1 A. M., the downpour continued until nearly 8 o'clock. When it slackened, commuters rejoiced and made for their trains—and then the deluge began.

At Narberth the passenger tunnel through which north-side commuters must walk before catching the 8:29 train for Philadelphia, was filled with 18 inches of water, which flowed through chinks in the brick archway. Rubbers were no good here—the water came up even above the height of galoshes.

Passengers were permitted to cross the railroad tracks, boarding the train by means of steps on the north side, which the train crew made ready. In Merion the tunnel was even more deeply flooded.

Motorists passing beneath the Pennsylvania Railroad arch at Wynnewood station Saturday morning found a lake where the road should have been. One car forded the lake at its deepest point and finally stalled when almost on shore in water that reached to its hubs.

Creeks here and there along the Main Line were swollen to flood proportions. Indian Creek became a young river.

Narberth's new storm sewers were tested to the limit. Although they carried off almost all the surface water in their 36-inch terra cotta pipes, the basements of many stores along Haverford avenue were flooded.

Before noon the downpour ceased, following a precipitation of 1.94 inch. No great damage was done along the Main Line, although many drenched residents complained that things, so far as they were concerned, were all wet.

Departures and Arrivals Keep Fireside Glowing—Three Births

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Long, of 109 Forrest avenue, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a boy, Sunday morning at the Anderson Hospital in Philadelphia. He will be named after his dad, whose genial face can be seen at the Narberth post office, looking even more cheerful than usual. Before her marriage Mrs. Long was Miss Mary Milligan, of Iona avenue.

Dr. and Mrs. Claude H. Crane, of 324 Essex avenue, are likewise to be congratulated. John Charles Crane was born Tuesday morning at the Anderson Hospital. Both mother and baby are well.

Mr. and Mrs. Duddleson, of Chicago Heights, Ill., are also being congratulated. Mrs. Duddleson before her marriage was Miss Sylvia Gregory, of Narberth.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Parks and son, Keith, of Hampden avenue, have returned from a week's stay in Atlantic City.

Edwin Speakman, of Hampden avenue, has gone to Woodville, O., to visit relatives for a month.

Commander and Mrs. Charles H. Shaw and family, of Avon road, have returned after a month's stay in Amherst, Mass.

Miss Marie Wentz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walton M. Wentz, Wayne avenue, left yesterday for a fortnight at the Girl Scout camp, Andre Briar Cliff, N. Y. The Mothers' Association is her host, as a result of her having shown the greatest efficiency in scouting during the year.

Mrs. Walton Wentz and her children returned last Saturday from a five weeks' stay at Betterton, Md., where Mrs. Wentz had gone to recuperate from her recent illness.

The condition of Mrs. Warren B. Aldred, of Cynwyd, who is in the Howard Hospital at Philadelphia, was reported as very serious this week. Mrs. Aldred before her marriage was Miss Elizabeth Dean. She is a niece of Mrs. Ralph D. McGee, of Narberth.

Miss Ruth Reiss, of Woodbine avenue, left Wednesday for Staten Island, N. Y., where she will remain for the remainder of the season. Her younger sister, Helen, recently returned from a few weeks' visit with Mr. and Mrs. James Sutherland at Martha's Vineyard, Mass.

After spending several weeks in New Philadelphia, O., as the guest of Miss Virginia Cooke, Miss Anne C. Compton, of Woodbine avenue, decided to return East. While in Ohio, Anne was the honor guest at several parties, dinners and luncheons, and also was fêted at a swimming party and marshmallow roast.

Mrs. A. E. Wohler and family have left for their cottage at Stone Harbor for the remainder of the season. Mr. Wohler will spend the week-ends with them.

Miss Mabel Kirkpatrick, of Essex avenue, has returned after a week's stay at Lehigh, Pa.

Mrs. Henry Smith, of Narberth avenue, is enjoying her trip to the Poconos this week.

Altoona seems to be a most attractive place for many Narberthites. Miss Betty Otto has gone there for the remainder of the summer. Miss Martha Sunderland returned last Thursday from a two weeks' visit, although she expects to go back soon again to act as bridesmaid for a friend.

Among the guests at the house party which Miss Anne Thomas, of Cynwyd, gave at her cottage in Cape May last week-end, was Mr. David Lanahan, of Forrest avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Green and family, of Woodbine avenue, have been motoring through the New England States for the past two weeks.

Mrs. Albert E. Davis and her daughter, Miss Alberta Davis, of Iona avenue, are the guests of Mrs. Paul Boyd at New Brunswick, N. J., for a few days. Mrs. Boyd will be remembered as Miss Mary Boyd.

STILL TIE

For Main Line Leadership as Berwyn Downs Gladwyne.

Narberth is still tie with Berwyn and Wayne at the beginning of the Main Line League's second half season. Gladwyne lost to Berwyn in the only baseball game played last Saturday on the Main Line. Today Narberth plays at Gladwyne, and next week at Wayne. The following week, August 20, will see Berwyn at Narberth.

Berwyn defeated Gladwyne 2 to 1 at Berwyn Saturday in the only game played in the Main Line League. It was a pitchers' duel between Trost and R. Vockel, the former keeping the visitors from the home plate until the ninth, when Gladwyne scored on a single by Thomas, a steal of second and a one-base blow by Deegan.

Berwyn scored first in the second. Trost dropped a single, advanced to second on an error by Jamison and scored on a single by DeShula. Berwyn won from the first-half champions in the fifth, when Hayes singled and pilfered second and raced home on a passed ball by Jamison.

The spectacular fielding of Verna and Hayes and Doyle and Umbach was a big asset. Lehman and Stevenson played snappy ball for the losers.

Was It the Car or the Tire the Thieves Wanted? Wonders Mr. Duffy

Into Philadelphia one day last week went Patrick J. Duffy, proprietor of the service station at Brookhurst avenue near Montgomery pike. His stock of tires was low, and the purpose of his visit was the hurried purchase for a customer of a Goodyear, at the agency where Broad and Somerset streets intersect. While the tire was being placed in his car, Mr. Duffy remained inside the supply agency a moment, completing payment for a previous purchase.

When he came out to drive his Buick away the tire was gone. So was the Buick. It was a powerful car, 1926 model, and Mr. Duffy's heart was in his boots when he informed the police of its theft. He feared no police car could outdistance it.

Three days later the Philadelphia police informed him the car had been recovered at Branchtown, near Ogontz. It was minus the new tire, and bore evidences of having been abandoned hurriedly, after the thieves had tried to strip it of its own tires as well. It was out of gas, and its mileage was 218 more than when Mr. Duffy had last seen it.

Mr. Duffy paid a $10 charge levied by the police for towing the car just one block to a gas station, and drove it home. Meanwhile, he had gotten another Goodyear tire for his customer, paying for it a second time. But at any rate he suffered no loss on account of the theft of the Buick. Its condition was such that he was able to drive it to Ocean City last week-end in two hours.

And now the question arises, did the thieves like the Goodyear tire so much they could not bear to part with it? And was the Buick so fast they could not stop it until it ran out of gas? Mr. Duffy would like to know, but the thieves have escaped, bearing their tire-some secret with them.

FIRST WORK BEGUN ON PIKE WIDENING

Road Marked for Digging and Sides Pegged at 100-Foot Intervals.

REPAIRING UPPER END

Preliminary work on the widening of Montgomery pike from City Line in Bala to Cheswold lane in Haverford, was started this week by the Union Paving Company, which was awarded the contract last week by the county commissioners.

Commencing in Bala, the pike is being marked for excavations. Some Lower Merion residents are being employed in the preliminary work which consists of pegging the sides of the road at intervals of 100 feet and painting the distance from the starting point in white letters on the road itself.

Materials have already been placed by the construction company along the pike and real work, it is expected, will begin the latter part of this week or early next.

This will be the second part of Montgomery pike to undergo reconstruction. Several weeks ago the Suburban Construction Company of Ardmore, was awarded a contract by the county for the rebuilding of the township part of Montgomery pike, which runs from Haverford to Gulf Mills.

Increased co-operation by the State was promised last week in Montgomery county's road building projects. Commissioners will be consulted before further contemplated changes are made in the State road program, as a result of this change in policy.

For some time the State has gone ahead with plans on various roads, cutting through properties, incurring property damages, and making changes without the sanction of the county commissioners. The counties, in turn, have been obliged to make payments on these damage claims as well as to hear the complaints.

DR. MARTIN SPEAKER

At Bala-Cynwyd-Narberth Rotary Club Luncheon.

Dr. William L. Martin, of Cynwyd, was speaker of the day at the Tuesday meeting of the Bala-Cynwyd-Narberth Rotary Club. In line with the policy of the program committee, his was an autobiographical talk.

Dr. Martin traced for his fellow-members his early education in central Pennsylvania and at Central High School. Later he attended the Hahnemann Medical School, and served his internship at the Hahnemann Hospital, where later he was chief resident physician.

Came the war and in April, 1917, Dr. Martin found himself attached to the Navy medical service, doing his bit to keep the troops well on their way to Europe. In this position he rose to the post of Senior Medical Officer, making numerous trips to France.

After the close of the conflict, he remained in the Naval service, being assigned to one of the naval hospitals for a course in surgery, his chosen branch of medical work.

When mustered out of the service he made Cynwyd his home. Here he has continued his work as a surgeon.

Next week the members will hear from John Crimmins, of the Westminster Cemetery.

AFRAID OF RAIN

Wednesday's baseball game at the Community Field was not played because the Philadelphia Twenty-first ward team thought it would rain. Another twilight game is scheduled at the Community Playground next Wednesday evening, as usual.

PUT OUT FIRE

Narberth's volunteer fire department was called out Sunday at 9:50 P. M. when a car on Haverford avenue in front of White's caught fire. Flames were promptly extinguished with chemicals, with only slight damage to the car.

GO WEST, YE MOTORISTS

Evidently California's wealth per capita is not the only reason for its standing as the State with the greatest number of motorcars per inhabitant.

Parked on Lancaster avenue in Ardmore last Tuesday was a small car bearing evidence of having traveled a great distance. Mud-splashed body, bent fenders, worn tires and a California license plate testified to this. Pedestrians noting the license plate, which bore a large number, made inquiries of the driver, whose car was crammed to the top with a miscellany of packages and bundles.

"Yes, I came from California," said the owner of the car. "I'm a salesman, traveling all over the country. I don't live anywhere in particular."

"The reason I have a California license is that they're cheaper out there than anywhere else. That license cost me only $3. Giddyap!"

He stepped on the gas and departed for Philadelphia. License tags in Pennsylvania range from $10 up, subject, of course, to the usual summer clearance sale reductions, effective August 1.

THREE ENTER RACE FOR TAX COLLECTOR

William J. Kirkpatrick is Latest Entrant for Post.

SOUGHT JOB IN 1925

Narberth's contest for the tax collectorship became three-cornered this week, when William J. Kirkpatrick threw his hat in the ring. Last week he would make no statement, and expressed surprise that his name was being mentioned as a candidate.

Defeated in 1925, Mr. Kirkpatrick has consented, according to his first campaign statement, made this week, to try again for the post. Two years ago he lost out against Mrs. Abbie W. Nickerson, whose vote was greater than that polled for Mr. Kirkpatrick and her other opponent, Mr. Edwin P. Dold, who was recently appointed by Council to complete the term of Mrs. Diven upon her removal to Pittsburgh.

In the contest so far as Mr. Kirkpatrick, Mr. Dold, whose term expires by limitation this fall, and Mrs. Mary M. Livingston, long active in Narberth Woman's Community Club activities, whose candidacy was announced a fortnight ago.

Colonel I. A. Miller, president of the Narberth School Board, will accept renomination to the post, which he now holds, he declared in reply to a telephone query this week, if the voters wish him to continue in office. Mrs. Grace E. Batchelor, whose term as school board director also expires this fall, has announced that she will not accept a renomination.

NO ACTION

On Fleming Appeal—Adjustment Board Has Not Met.

No decision has as yet been reached by the Narberth Board of Adjustment concerning Mrs. Mary A. Fleming's appeal for permission to change her property at Montgomery avenue and Haverford road to a service station.

According to P. B. Krout, chairman of the committee, a meeting will probably be held next Tuesday night. Other members of the committee are W. D. R. Evans and Walter L. Dohard. Their decision will be communicated to Borough Council at its August 8 meeting.

Through error last week it was reported that Patrick J. Duffy, proprietor of a service station at Brookhurst avenue near Montgomery pike, spoke in favor of Mrs. Fleming's petition for a change of classification of her property at the meeting of the Narberth Board of Adjustment held last Tuesday night.

It was not Patrick J. Duffy, but James J. Duffy, of 39 Montgomery avenue, who spoke. Mr. J. J. Duffy is one of the thirty signers of a petition for a change of classification from residential to business of the borough side of the pike, from Narberth to Haverford avenues.

UPHOLDS MAGISTRATE

In Decision Against Narberth Taxi Man on Employment of Minor.

Edward Phillips, father, and Walter Roser, employer of 16-year-old George Phillips, were declared last Thursday by Judge Williams at Norristown to have violated the State Child Labor law when they permitted the boy, under 18 years of age, to drive a taxi in Narberth for Roser's Narberth Taxi Company. The decision upholds Justice Howard C. Fritsch, of Narberth, who had fined both father and employer $50 and costs.

Claiming an injustice had been done by the Magistrate, the petitioners had appealed to the Norristown Courts, declaring that since Phillips' son had a license from the State to drive an automobile, he should be permitted to drive the taxi, owned by Roser.

GETS PERMIT

Daniel B. Ely, 103 Dudley avenue, was granted a permit by Building Inspector George B. Supplee to make slight alterations at his home. The approximate cost is $20.

SET FIVE YEARS AS MINIMUM AGE

For Children Attending New Kindergarten School Board Meets.

APPOINT NEW TEACHERS

Admission to the Narberth Kindergarten will be limited to children who will not be less than five years of age on or before January 1, 1928, as a result of a decision made last Friday evening by the Narberth School Board at its regular July meeting. However, if the limit of attendance is not reached under this restriction younger children may be admitted after the school is organized.

The kindergarten is the result of the school board's prompt action on petition of members of the Mothers' Council, which was organized by the Women's Community Club this spring. During its first year, while still in the experimental stage, the kindergarten class will be held in the Legion room of the Community Building, through courtesy of the American Legion, in co-operation with Borough Council.

When school opens, September 17, it is expected many mothers will take advantage of the opportunity to send their youngsters to the new extension of the Narberth school system. All children applying for admission to either the kindergarten or first grade must present certificates showing successful vaccination.

Miss Esther M. Cherry was appointed as instructor in Domestic Science and General Science by the School Board at its meeting Friday. She is a graduate of West Chester Normal and of Penn State College. The selection of Thomas Clark and Evelyn Humpton as playground directors was also approved by the Board. Mr. Clark is a Ursinus graduate, and Miss Humpton is a graduate of West Chester Normal School. All three teachers have had experience, and are well recommended.

The bonds of Tax Collector Edwin P. Dold, who is also treasurer for the School Board, were presented to the Board and approved. Report was made that the Powell Construction Company has completed its work on the passageway connecting the two Narberth schools, on Sabine avenue.

CLERKS BEGIN

Tabulation of Voters Eligible for Primary.

Tabulation of voters entitled to cast a ballot at the primary election, September 20, is under way at the Montgomery county court house under the supervision of County Commissioners Stout, Crawford and Keeler.

Chief Clerk Harry S. Shainline has entire force of transcribers compiling the list of qualified voters from the registry books returned last Thursday by the 165 assessors of the county, after spending two days at the various polling places enrolling new voters and changing party classification of a number of others.

It will take at least a week to obtain the data necessary for the preparation of the specifications for the printing of the primary ballot. Mr. Shainline stated. Every book must be checked and the number of Republicans, Democrats, Socialists, etc., counted to ascertain how many ballots of each party will be required in each precinct.

ARRANGES

Arrangements have been made by the Rev. John Van Ness for the following clergymen to preach in the Presbyterian church during the pastor's absence in August:

August 7—Rev. James C. McConnell, pastor of the Presbyterian church of Flemington, N. J.

August 14—Rev. Leo M. Johnson, pastor of the Temple Presbyterian Church of Philadelphia.

August 21—Rev. Henry Cunningham, pastor of the Presbyterian church of Langhorne, Pa.

August 28—Rev. L. M. Keim, of Narberth, Pa.

Mr. Johnson will also preach at the twilight meeting on August 14.

LINDBERGH LIKE DAVID

Narberth Boy Scouts spending last week-end at Camp Penshurst were told by Burgess Henry A. Frye at their regular Sunday morning religious exercises that Lindbergh defeated the giant ocean just as David slew Goliath—because he had faith in his ability and strength of character. With these attributes, said the Burgess, men of modern times are able to accomplish miracles as remarkable as those of Biblical times.

KAEBERS RETURN

Councilman and Mrs. Kaebler have returned to their home on Chestnut avenue after a short vacation in the Wisconsin Dells. On their return East they were guests at a luncheon given by Mrs. Hugh Brown at the Red Coach Inn, Niagara Falls.

Mr. Brown will be remembered as a former Councilman of Narberth as well as the first president of Narberth National Bank. On account of business connections it was necessary for him to reside in Buffalo, New York.

HOME FIRST

That is what you've been thinking about for some time, and we've been wondering just how to bridge the gap and help you.

As the old Colonial furniture is being handed down and imitated because it has beauty oftentimes indescribable, just so are the old Frame Houses being sought, copied and modernized. In some cases they are reproduced to the most minute detail.

We'll agree that lumber has certain disadvantages in construction work, but the variety of woods and the variety of its uses so far outnumber any of its competitors, that we look upon it as the old standby.

Build a Home First, then happiness and prosperity will follow.

Why we sell the DUNLOP TIRE

FOR 39 YEARS Dunlop has been building the world's supreme tire. Dunlops wear longer because Dunlop knows how to build better at each vital point.

Take the hidden carcass beneath the tread. Dunlop owns its own cotton mills for no other purpose than to spin the best long-fibre cotton into the famous cable-twist cord that goes into this carcass.

The extra strength in these cords means an added factor of safety against constant load and pounding of roads—longer life and greater mileage.

The extra "stretch" enables the carcass to give under severe blows, and to come back into its original position without internal injury.

The Dunlop tread—the toughest rubber development known—wears slowly and smoothly, making sure that you get out of your Dunlops, all the extra mileage that added care and longer experience have built into them. We recommend that you put Dunlops on your car.

Facts About Jeddo-Highland Coal

It Is Carefully Sized

Jeddo-Highland coal comes out of the ground in many-sized lumps, together with dirt and rock and slate. It is then hoisted up to the top of a breaker, where it is dumped. The larger lumps of coal are crushed by rollers and the biggest pieces of slate and rock are removed BY HAND.

The coal next passes over screens where it is sized into the familiar Egg, Stove, Nut, Pea and Buckwheat. Then down it goes through spiral pickers which remove flat pieces of slate, and thence into the jigs and tables where it is separated from other impurities, being constantly washed by a continuous stream of water flowing over it.

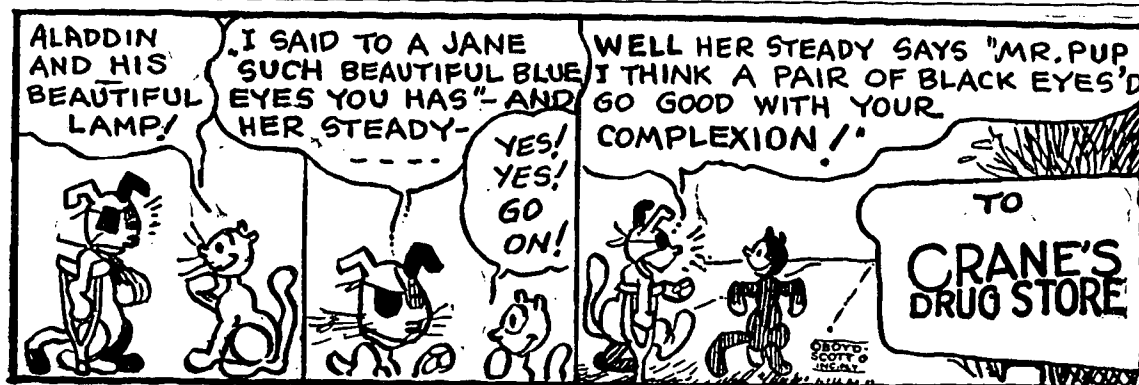

Such careful preparation naturally results in clean coal, uniformly graded. AND WE ARE SELLING IT.

Eleanor Michaelson, of Haverford avenue, has been enjoying the surf bathing at Ocean City for the last few days. Several members of the Tau Delta Phi Sorority will leave Monday for Ocean City for a week or so. Those who plan to go are the Misses Louise Jones, Catherine Torchiana, Virginia Smith, Elinor Diamond, Florence Hutchinson and Elinor Knauer.

Mrs. Albert H. Nulty and her three children will leave tomorrow for Cape May until after Labor Day. Mr. Nulty will spend the week-ends with his family. Also leaving tomorrow for Cape May, for the month of August are Mrs. Nulty's sisters, Miss Alice and Miss Edith Maguire.

Little Mitchell Beardsley does not envy those who are not going to the shore, mountains or to the "farm," because he is a big man now, having celebrated his fourth birthday last Monday afternoon. To make the occasion an even more joyous one, Margaret, Janet and John Murry, Edith and Jack McWilliams, Jack Hanke and Barbara Beardsley helped him to eat the ice cream and cake.

A BUILDING WITHOUT BRICKS

A mason will not attempt to erect a structure without stones or bricks. And he makes a careful selection of the material that is needed. How many young men and women are trying today right here in this town to erect the edifice of success without using a bank account? And do you realize that the selection of a Bank for YOU and YOUR needs to build YOUR edifice of success is just as important as the selection of bricks by a mason when he puts up a building? This is a Bank of Personal Service. We can serve you individually whatever may be your business.

The snob may turn up his nose at the thrifty man, but all the world turns its back on the shiftless one.
